Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Natural Diamonds Investment Co., et al.
United States District Court Southern District of Florida
Case No. 19-CV-80633-ROSENBERG

Dear Investors:

I hope that everyone is doing well. I have some great news!

I have just filed a motion for the Court to permit a distribution process, to which I attached a proposed order detailing the process and a proposed proof of claim form. This motion is the first step in sending distributions to you, which I hope to do before the end of the year. If the motion is granted, the next step will be to send the proof of claim to each investor. Please note that you will have to complete the proof of claim form even if you have registered on the website. After the claim forms have been received and reviewed, we will know how much each investor is owed and we will have a better understanding of the total losses in the case. I can then liquidate all of the diamonds and jewelry that I have and begin to make distributions. A copy of the motion that I filed is posted on the website.

I will, of course, keep you posted.

Sincerely,
